Boys Town Skill of the Week: Sharing Something

1. Let the other person use the item first
2. Ask if you can use it later
3. When you get to use it, offer it back to the other person after you're finished

Dear Blessed Sacrament Families,

It's possible that I have a softer spot for seeing students act maternally/paternally since I'm very pregnant, but I know that seeing your own children act motherly or fatherly to others is downright heart-melting (although my experience with this hasn't gone beyond my son cradling a Lego with a face and saying, "Aww!"). Each week, a different 8th grader sits in the middle of our Kindergarten class during Mass. Simply seeing one of our oldest students in the school being surrounded by some of our youngest students will bring a smile to my face. This week's eighth grader has particularly impressed our Kindergarten teacher, Ms. Gibson. He has modeled his reverence and participation well and has also done a great job giving our little Kindergarteners reminders of how to act during Mass. This a reflection of his upbringing, our teachers' influence, and our faith. Creating opportunities for our children to positively lead by example and show their nurturing side is so beautiful even if it's a two-year-old showing it to his toy Legos.

In Christ,

Mrs. Jennifer Tran
