Boys Town Skill of the Week: Having a Conversation

1. Look at the person
2. Use a pleasant voice
3. Listen to what the other person says
4. When there is a break in the conversation, ask a question or share your thoughts

Dear Blessed Sacrament Families,

Can you believe Palm Sunday is just a few days away? This day holds a special significance to me simply because it always catches me off guard with its contradiction. I go through Lent feeling the weight of the suffering Jesus will be going through and less than a week before his suffering and death, we remember how Jesus was openly celebrated and praised. Of course there were still some who had disdain for Our Lord, but so many outwardly showed their love for Him. This makes it even harder to imagine the pain and torture Jesus then publicly endured. He looked at the same faces standing on the sidelines of His walk to Calvary that He saw during his walk into Jerusalem. This is a great reminder to always be true to your beliefs even if there is pressure to think or do differently. Those who wiped Jesus' face, prayed for Him along the road, carried His cross, and spoke kindly helped get Him through His suffering—let us emulate those faithful in our final stretch to Easter Sunday.

In Christ,

Mrs. Jennifer Tran
