Dear Blessed Sacrament Families,

Our second graders had the gift of completing their First Penance tonight. Confession can be a bit intimidating even for parents, but it is such a beautiful sacrament for our students and parents to be part of. I saw much more excitement than nervousness as our students lined up in front of the confessionals to offer up their sins to God. It was almost equally as beautiful to see the support from family in the pews and some lining up to go to Confession as well. Thank you for modeling the love of God and taking advantage of His compassion for our students and community.

In Christ,

Mrs. Jennifer Tran
