Dear Families,

Like every year, I can't believe we are already on our final week of school. Like being a parent, I would describe teaching as the days are long but the years are short. There are beautiful memories made amidst some tough moments. As the year comes to a close, I love seeing students praise their teachers in different ways—"My favorite teacher" badges, cards with poems of how they will miss their teacher, and generous gifts from students—whether it's homemade projects, delicious or energizing treats, or a Scooters gift card. On the flip side, it's always tough for our teachers to part with their classes that they have claimed as their own for 10 months with the hopes that they will successfully move on to the next teacher and fall in love with a new personality and classroom all over again. All of us at Blessed Sacrament wish you a wonderful summer with most likely long days and short months 😊.

In Christ,

Mrs. Jennifer Tran

FIELD DAY

Tomorrow is our annual Field Day! It is a dress down day for students with family shirts (if students wear shorts, please make sure they are no shorter than halfway down their thigh). Drop-off and pick-up time is exactly the same except students will be getting Kona Ice on their way out. If you haven't brought cookies, it's not too late to bring a pack tomorrow. We will be awarding certificates for grades 5th-7th in the afternoon, and Mrs. Tran will send an email tomorrow if your student is receiving one (grades won't be finalized until tonight, so it's a tight window!).

2024-2025 SCHOOL REGISTRATION
