

Boys Town Skill of the Week: Getting the teacher's attention

1. Look at the teacher.
2. Raise your hand and stay calm.
3. Wait until the teacher says your name.
4. Ask your question.

Dear Blessed Sacrament Families,

Happy Catholic Schools Week! This week is not for the faint of heart! We've enjoyed celebrating with activities planned by our teacher committee, Student Council and PTO: I am especially looking forward to the friendly competition of our staff vs. 8th grade volleyball game tomorrow.

This week offers the opportunity to say thank you to the MANY people who make our Catholic school possible and to recall the fundamental value of Catholic education. I recently re-read Bishop Conley's letter The Joy and Wonder of Catholic Education. He says, "Education is the process of shaping us to fulfill the purpose of our lives; to know the happiness that comes from living in accord with our dignity and our nature ... Since education is the formation of human hearts, minds, and wills for the glory of their Creator, it has always been a priority within Catholicism." Thank you for sending your child(ren) to Blessed Sacrament School and all the ways you partner with us to form the hearts and minds of your children. May God reward you!

In Jesus our Eucharistic King,
Sister Marie Caritas, CK
