- 1. Let the other person use the item first.*
- 2. Ask if you can use it later.*
- 3. When you get to use it, offer it back to the other person after you have used it.*

Dear Blessed Sacrament Families,

In his recent Apostolic Letter on education, *Drawing New Maps of Hope*, Pope Leo says, "Christian education is a collective endeavor: no one educates alone. The educational community is a 'we' where teachers, students, families, administrative and service staff, pastors and civil society converge to generate life." Basically, it takes a village to raise a child.

I see this clearly through interactions with parents, our priests' homilies, and in our teachers' instruction in the classroom. I am grateful that the reality Pope Leo speaks of is present in our school community. What a difference it makes for our students, both now and in the future!
