

Boys Town Skill of the Week: Accepting Criticism or a Consequence

1. Look at the person.
2. Say 'Okay.'
3. Stay calm.

Dear Blessed Sacrament Families,

Our 8th grade class, led by Dr. B., prepared us for the Sacred Triduum by leading our school family in the living stations of the cross this afternoon. Their reenactment of Jesus's final passion was powerful! At the end, the 8th graders held candles in the dark church and knelt around Jesus's shrouded body, while a student played "My Song is Love Unknown" on the cello and the congregation sang. The candles were then left by Jesus's body, and everyone remained kneeling in prayer as the cello continued. Finally, we departed in silence. What a beautiful way to spend our last moments of school before Easter break. Once outside, a PK student told his mom, "I'm glad we don't die by crucifixion." We don't have to because Jesus did for us!

In these next days, the entire Church will relive the Passion of our Savior, wait at the tomb and rejoice in his resurrection. Be assured of my prayers for you and your family in these holiest days of the year. Blessed Triduum and Easter!

In Jesus our Eucharistic King,
Sister Marie Caritas, CK
