

Boys Town Skill of the Week: Accepting “No” for an Answer

1. Look at the person.
2. Say “Okay.”
3. Stay calm.
4. If you disagree, ask later.

Dear Blessed Sacrament Families,

This Friday, our school is doing something we have not done any other Friday this year. We are serving meat for lunch! That’s right; corn dogs are on the menu!

In union with the suffering Christ, each Friday of the year is a penitential day in which we are called to abstain from meat or offer another suitable penance. This Friday, however, is different since we are in the midst of the Easter Octave. Jesus’s resurrection is so life-shattering that it cannot be contained in one day of celebration; the Church gives us eight days of ‘paschal joy.’ But that’s not all – the Easter season still continues until Pentecost.

I hope your family will continue celebrating Easter all week long. You can be sure I will enjoy a corn dog come Friday. Alleluia!

In Jesus our Eucharistic King,
Sister Marie Caritas, CK
