November 18, 2026

This Sunday is the Feast of Christ the King, our Religious Community's biggest feast day. Woo-hoo!

The days leading up to our special feasts are filled with excitement and anticipation ... We spend hours polishing candlesticks, creating beautiful floral bouquets for chapel, pressing tablecloths and napkins, cooking scrumptious foods, and cleaning all parts of our Motherhouse. We do all these things to prepare for the great joy of the particular feast day, which is meant to be a reflection of all that we are doing to prepare for the greatest feast, the Heavenly Banquet.

Know of my prayers for you and your families as we celebrate Jesus Christ as King of the Universe. May he reign in our hearts and in the hearts of all those we meet each day!
